

Public Presentation – Terrace Campus

October 14th, 2015 12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

This session will also be available via livestream: <http://www.livestream.com/unbcnorthwest>

“The Leap Manifesto: What’s It All About?”

Benefits and Implications of a Program For National Action to Secure Our Future

This event is intended as a forum for public discussion. A brief introductory presentation will summarise the reasons why Canadians would benefit from programs like the Manifesto. In the light of those potential benefits, its fifteen demands will be interpreted and discussed. Participants are invited to comment and contribute from diverse perspectives and worldviews.

Presenter: Dr. Alexander Lautensach,
Dipl.Biol. MSc. BEd. MScT. PhD.
Associate Professor, UNBC Terrace

*This session will also be available via livestream:
<http://www.livestream.com/unbcnorthwest>*