

Building a Sustainable and Resilient Future in Small Communities

with Decentralized and Holistic Water and Sanitation Solutions

Join us in tackling water and sanitation challenges in small and rural communities! Connect with academia, industry, government, and civil society to explore off-grid solutions. Let's build a shared language and envision lasting change together.

Featured Speakers:

Madjid T. Mohseni, PhD

Professor at the University of British Columbia

Scientific Director, RES'EAU
Centre for Mobilizing Innovation

Flor (June) Garcia-Becerra, PhD

Assistant Professor at the University of Northern British Columbia

Lead of the Water and Sanitation Holistic Technologies (WASH-T) Research Group

Harry Nyce Jr., MBA

Vice President and Instructor for Wilp Wilxo'oskwhl Nisga'a Institute (WWNI)
in the Nass Valley

Member of the Tsimshian and Nisga'a First Nations

Event Details

When:

Wednesday, April 10th
5:00pm - 7:00pm

Where:

Two Rivers Gallery
725 Canada Games Way,
Prince George

Food will be provided at the event.*

Register here

Contact:

Adriana Hurtado, Assistant Coordinator
ahurtado@unbc.ca

Marianella Hernandez, Assistant Coordinator
lmhernande@unbc.ca