AURORA

UNBC Career Centre Newsletter

"Aurora" captures the essence of inspiration and new beginnings, mirroring a student's journey in career exploration. This name reflects the Career Centre's mission to illuminate diverse career possibilities and guide students towards a bright, successful future.

From Campus to Career This Summer

As the final exams and projects start wrapping up, it's the perfect time for UNBC students to switch gears from academic grind to career mode. The UNBC Career Centre provides the key to unlocking this potential through its Student Job portal, boasting over 100 job opportunities, with new ones added daily. Beginning your job hunt early, personalizing each application, and preparing thoroughly for interviews are essential steps to stand out in the competitive summer job market.

The UNBC Career Centre elevates this job search process with an array of career preparation tools. These resources are designed not just for job discovery but to ensure students are fully equipped to capitalize on these opportunities. From developing standout resumes and compelling cover letters to mastering the nuances of CV crafting and interview techniques, the Centre is a hub for career development.

So, why settle for a summer of Netflix binges when you could be banking experience that'll pay off long after graduation? The UNBC Career Centre's Student Job portal is the key to flipping your summer from zero to hero. Whether it's scoring a gig that aligns with your major or trying out a field you've always been curious about, this resource is your ticket to making the summer count. Dive into the job board, get your applications going, and gear up for a summer that's more about making moves than making memories. It's time to get strategic about the break and lay down some groundwork for your future career.
