

	PHO GUIDANCE FOR BC RESTART	LEARNING SPACE	INDIVIDUAL/SHARED OFFICES	INDOOR / OUTDOOR BOOKABLE SPACE	MEETINGS	TRAVEL	NORTHERN SPORT CENTRE
STEP 1: June 1st Criteria At least 60% of the 18+ population vaccinated with dose 1, stable case counts and COVID-19 hospitalization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masks required indoors (except listed exemptions) Physical distancing maintained BC Thrive daily health check required If sick, stay home and get tested Enhanced cleaning and sanitization in place All employees attending campus/site complete COVID-19 safety orientation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of courses delivered by alternate delivery, pre-approved plans for face-to-face instruction apply Maximum occupancy requirements maintained within classrooms, theatres and labs Students required to wear masks in all learning spaces Field Schools and research in the field limited to essential requirements with approved project risk assessment plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of employees work remotely Barriers and/or screens installed for shared space that is occupied where physical distancing cannot be maintained or at front-line customer service locations Some units and faculty begin transition to on-campus activities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum occupancy requirements adhered to for all indoor public space/gathering areas with restricted seating to support physical distancing Masks worn (with exception for eating/drinking or listed exemptions) in all indoor space Students and approved guest accommodation bookings available within residence buildings a maximum of 50% suite occupancy with some exceptions (family or work cohorts) Food service operations closed for the summer Indoor (up to 10 people) or outdoor (up to 50 people), seated organized gatherings bookable with a COVID-19 safety plan approved by unbccommand@unbc.ca 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Virtual meetings continue In-person meetings to be held in dedicated space adhering to maximum room occupancy limits Employees can hold face-to-face meetings within their individual office depending on their individual comfort level 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Travel for UNBC education, training and research activities (including practical learning and research placements) is considered essential travel, so is permitted Travel authorization letters can be provided for faculty, staff, students or contractors needing to travel between provincial travel regions by emailing safety@unbc.ca 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masks required to be worn throughout the facility including during fitness activities for adults 19+ (except listed exemptions) No spectators permitted for any sport activity Low-intensity group exercise permitted with adherence to maximum occupancy requirements; registration required for classes Games and practices for both adult and youth group/team sports allowed
STEP 2: June 15th Criteria At least 65% of the 18+ population vaccinated with dose 1, declining case counts and COVID-19 hospitalization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masks required indoors (except listed exemptions) Physical distancing maintained BC Thrive daily health check required If sick, stay home and get tested Enhanced cleaning and sanitization in place All employees attending campus/site complete COVID-19 safety orientation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of courses delivered by alternate delivery, pre-approved plans for face-to-face instruction applies Maximum occupancy requirements maintained within classrooms, theatres and labs Students required to wear masks in all learning spaces Field Schools and research in the field limited to essential requirements with approved project risk assessment plan Facilities returns furniture to classrooms 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of employees work remotely Barriers and/or screens installed for shared space that is occupied where physical distancing cannot be maintained or at front-line customer service locations Some units and faculty begin transition to on-campus activities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum occupancy requirements adhered to for all indoor public space/gathering areas with restricted seating to support physical distancing. Masks worn (with exception for eating/drinking or listed exemptions) in all indoor space Students and approved guest accommodation bookings available within residence buildings a maximum of 50% suite occupancy with some exceptions (family or work cohorts) Food service operations closed for the summer Indoor (up to 10 people) or outdoor (up to 50 people), seated organized gatherings bookable with a COVID-19 safety plan approved by unbccommand@unbc.ca 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of meetings continue virtually but smaller in-person meetings may begin In-person meetings to be held in dedicated space adhering to maximum room occupancy limits Employees can hold face-to-face meetings within their individual office depending on their individual comfort level 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Travel for UNBC education, training and research activities (including practical learning and research placements) is considered essential travel, so is permitted Provincial travel region restrictions expected to be lifted for recreational travel 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masks required to be worn throughout the facility including during fitness activities for adults 19+ (except listed exemptions) No spectators permitted for any sport activity Both low- and high-intensity group exercise permitted with adherence to maximum occupancy requirements; registration required for classes Games and practices for both adult and youth group/team sports allowed
STEP 3: July 1st Criteria At least 70% of the 18+ population vaccinated with dose 1, low case counts and COVID-19 declining hospitalization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masks required indoors (except listed exemptions) changed from recommended on Aug. 24, 2021 Reduced physical distancing requirement BC Thrive daily health check required If sick, stay home and get tested Enhanced cleaning and sanitization in place All employees and students required to complete COVID-19 safety orientation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of courses delivered by alternate delivery, pre-approved plans for face-to-face instruction applies Maximum occupancy requirements maintained within classrooms, theatres and labs Field Schools and research in the field limited to essential requirements with approved project risk assessment plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Barriers and/or screens installed for shared space that is occupied where physical distancing cannot be maintained or at front-line customer service locations Supervisors work with employees on a phased, gradual return to on-campus work and activities; priority is for units needing to meet on-campus operations, services and instructional requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students and approved guest accommodation bookings available within residence buildings a maximum of 50% suite occupancy with some exceptions (family or work cohorts) Food service operations closed for the summer Indoor and outdoor gatherings and events can continue with increased capacity with a COVID-19 safety plan approved by unbccommand@unbc.ca 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of meetings continue virtually but smaller in-person meetings may begin In-person meetings to be held in dedicated space adhering to maximum room occupancy limits Employees can hold face-to-face meetings within their individual office depending on their individual comfort level 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Canada-wide work and recreational travel permitted 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masks required in public spaces, but not while exercising Limited indoor spectators permitted for any sport activity All indoor group exercise permitted with usual occupancy numbers
STEP 4: Fall Semester Criteria More than 70% of the 18+ population vaccinated with dose 1, low case counts and COVID-19 hospitalization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wearing a mask indoors is a personal choice If sick, stay home and get tested UNBC will maintain enhanced cleaning and sanitization 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Majority of courses delivered face-to-face on campus with full classroom/lab/theatre occupancy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Barriers and/or screens remain in place for shared space at front-line customer service locations Supervisors work with employees on an increased return to on-campus work and activities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Residence building fully reopened with normal occupancy except for a small increase in available emergency suites Food service operations (including meal plan) fully operational with normal occupancy Indoor and outdoor gatherings and events can continue with increased capacity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Usual meeting expectations can resume but consideration is given to continuing virtual meetings given that the employee transition back to campus may require hybrid meetings 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Canada-wide work and recreational travel permitted 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wearing a mask will be a personal choice Increased level of spectators permitted for any sport activity Return to normal sport competitions with COVID-19 safety plan in place