

GLOBAL FRIDAY PRESENTS

Dr. Reuben L. Gabriel

“From Most Hated to Most Loved: the Missionary Legacy of John Wilson in Nineteenth-century Bombay (Mumbai)”

Reuben Louis Gabriel was lecturer in History of Christianity and Mission Studies, and Dean of Students at SAIACS, a post-graduate research institute affiliated to the University of Mysore, India. He has a PhD in History (nineteenth-century British India) from the University of Wales, UK. In September 2009 he moved with his family to Canada and has since been lecturing at UNBC and CNC.

November 19, 2010

12:00—1:30 pm

Senate Chambers—Admin. 1079