

Senate Motion Approval Process

for Senate motions related to a new degree, new program, new course, changes to program or degree requirements or other calendar text, new admission requirements or revisions to admission requirements

Steps I - IV of the approval process will take a minimum of 60 days.

* Note about Step III – Most motions going to Senate from an academic unit are vetted through SCAAf; however motions dealing with new or revised admissions requirements or standards fall under the purview of SCAD. Any motions containing Aboriginal or First Nations content must also be reviewed by SCFNAP.
