

SPRING/SUMMER
COURSES
REGISTER NOW!

BIOL 498-3 Bryology CRN 30573
NRES 698-3 Bryology CRN 30599
Date: Apr 26 – May 5

Apotreubia hortoniae

Sphagnum riparium

This is an immersive course in the identification, taxonomy, and ecology of mosses and liverworts of western Canada, with an emphasis on the identification and ecology of species of northern and coastal British Columbia. Students will gain practical and theoretical foundations in bryophyte anatomy, morphology, reproduction, physiology, ecology, and conservation through daily lectures, labs, and field trips. Pre-requisites: First-year Biology.

BIOL 301-3 Systematic Botany Field Course
CRN 30427

Date: Aug 21 - 30

Learn about the taxonomy of vascular plants and how to identify the common plants found in the Northwest.

BIOL 350-3 Ethnobotany
CRN 30563

Fri: Jul 12, Jul 26, Aug 9, 6:00-9:00p
Sat: Jul 13, Jul 27, Aug 10, 9:00a-5:00p
Sun: Jul 14, Jul 28, Aug 11, 9:00a-1:00p

This course will review traditional plant use worldwide and by First Nations in British Columbia. Special reference will be made to First Nations in the Terrace area. The course will be organized around food, medicinal, technological and spiritual uses of plants.

INTS 301-3 International Law
CRN 30734

Date: May 6 – June 14

International Law is a defining feature of our contemporary global society. This course explores the nature and sources of international law and its application to the establishment of order in global society. Pre-requisites: INTS 100-3 and INTS 210-3, or permission of the instructor

FNST 304-3 Indigenous Environmental Philosophy
CRN 30577

Date: June 19 – 25

A seminar exploring Indigenous philosophy, knowledge, contemporary issues and perspectives through a combination of lectures, discussion, and field trips

SOCW 439-3 Social Work/Law and the Justice System
CRN 30567
Date: May 21 – 25

This course examines various areas of the Canadian legal system. It also examines the practice of Social Work in court settings. It provides a basic understanding of the rights and interests of children, rules of evidence, and the role of various interveners.

FNST 306-3 Indigenous Women: Perspectives
CRN 30577

Date: May 6 – 10

Video-conference from Quesnel; face-to-face Terrace

SOCW 498-3 Special Topics: Homelessness, Mental Health and Addictions Among Children and Youth
CRN 30566
Date: May 5 – 11

Check out our online courses!

Students new to UNBC must first apply for admission, which should be done well in advance of course registration. Please submit a completed application form, including all documentation and fees, to the Northwest Terrace campus office or apply online at <http://www.unbc.ca/apply/undergraduate>

CONTACT:
UNBC Terrace Campus
4837 Keith Avenue, Terrace, BC V8G 1K7
Tel: 250-615-5578; 1-800-697-7388
Fax: 250-615-5478 northwest@unbc.ca

UNBC Prince Rupert Campus
353 Fifth Street, Prince Rupert, BC V8J 3L6
Tel: 250-624-2862; 1-888-554-6554
Fax: 250-624-9703